No reviews? Like, only one in English so far? Wow!

Anyways, this game is beyond terrible. And not being free of course it doesn't deserve a single cent.

The whole game consist of a magic matchstick game: you have minimalistic instructions in Russian and English like remove 1 matchstick, remove 3 matchsticks etc. per every level and well, the board consists of three numbers from 0 to 9.

You then have to move the matchsticks in order to get the mathematic product work. I mean, you have to create the number by manually dragging the matchsticks and make simple things like  $5 - 1 = 4$  and so on.

The game is all here, the graphics are awful (a clear blue background and matchsticks that I can design better on Paint) and really you have nothing else to do, just follow the instruction and change some sticks in order to get a correct mathematical function.

The numbers are so wide on the screen that it isn't even easy to understand what you're doing, but even if it was better designed well, the game is a 10-minutes trash 'cos there are no difficulties, no interesting ideas, no purposes at all and going on doesn't change anything.

No fun at all here.. 10/10 would waste money for these freakin achievement games again. Ez unlock 4252 Achievements 100%. You get what you paid for, 4.2K achievements at minimum price. If you're an achievement hunter looking to increase the number of achievements on your profile showcase, then I highly recommend buying this. Else don't waste your money. This is not a game, it's just a way of distributing achievements.. I like the idea of this game, but not its execution. The biggest thing is the way the large matchsticks are spaced out and I strain my eye to distinguish the numbers, hindering this is MS paint-like background color. Oh, and the game seemed to stop unlocking achievements after the first 9 for me. The fix I read of in the discussions did not work for me. On a positive note: at least you have the option to turn off the repetitive music. I might change my mind if the developers fix this stuff, and update the game. From the news feed, the updates don't do much (mostly fixing achievement errors), unlikely to change review.. You get what you paid for, 4.2K achievements at minimum price.
